ABSTRACT

An Alphabetically arranged bibliography, listing 485 entries representing 518 citations taken from "Poole's Index to Periodical Literature" 1802-1906, "Cannon's Bibliography of Library Economy," and "Library Literature" 1921 to mid-1970. Other sources used include: The Index to the Journal of Correctional Education; ten bibliographies taken from thesis; published bibliographies by "American Prisoner Association" and the "American Correctional Association;" bibliographies by Osborne Association and the Russell Sage Foundation on prison and correctional institutions. The earliest citation listed is Gustave de Beaumont and Alexis de Tocqueville. "ON THE PENITENTIARY SYSTEM IN THE UNITED STATES AND OF ITS APPLICATION IN FRANCE," translation by Francis Lieber, Philadelphia: 1833. All citations relate to United States Prisons and Correctional Institutions. (Author)
